

Adjectives That Compare

RULES

Adjectives can be used to compare two or more things.

- Add -er to most adjectives to compare two people, places, or things.

A chimpanzee is smarter than a gorilla.

- Add -est to most adjectives to compare more than two people, places, or things.

The chimpanzee is the smartest animal in the jungle.

Adjectives that compare are used to tell how things are alike and different.

Golden lion tamarins are one of the smallest monkeys. They are often mistaken for squirrels because of their size. Golden lion tamarins have rounder faces than squirrels. Their tails are longer than a squirrel's tail.
