

In this section, you will hear a report about dishonest on-line companies in the United States.

- Your task is to find one word in each of the following sentences which doesn't make sense in the context of the recording.
- Write the correct one on the line after the sentence.

✓ Mr. Brody received an email from a friend in New York.

company

1. The letter congratulated Mr. Brody on being the buyer of an electronic piano.

2. When Mr. Brody received the box, at first he saw nothing but pieces of plastic.

3. The piano had thirty buttons which made a beeping sound when he pushed them.

4. Dishonest companies often surprise people with their advertising.

5. The "solar-powered clothes dryer" turned out to be nothing but a wire and a clothes pin.

6. People ordered the "faux pearls" because they were surprisingly expensive.

7. People should not have been surprised to see that the pearls were made of glass.

8. The Postal Service employs 500 people whose only task is to stop the cheating customers.

<http://it.scribd.com/doc/37756573/More-True-Stories>

Image by Clker-Free-Vector-Images on Pixabay