

The environmental cost of free shipping.

Answer the questions in full sentences.

1. Compare the carbon footprint of online shopping to that of driving to the store.

2. Often, choosing two day shipping means

- A you don't have to pay for it to get to you
- B increased greenhouse gases
- C delivery trucks that may not be completely filled
- D more than one package will be used to get the products to where they are going
- E all of the above

3. Why might environmentally friendly consumers choose to pick the longer delivery window for something they purchase?

4. How are cities trying to cut idling time down?

- A no traffic signals, just STOP signs
- B putting in more railroad tracks
- C Wi-fi traffic lights that tell the driver when the light will change red
- D driverless cars

5. What does truck platooning involve?

- A delivery trucks racing to see who arrives with their deliveries first
- B trucks that are near each other transmitting information about speed
- C reduction of drag
- D both b and c
- E all of the above are great answers

6. List several different ways drivers may be able to decrease their carbon footprints.

7. Why choose the "green option" for delivery?