UNIT 2: FOOD, FOOD, FOOD

LESSON 19 (Writing: a review)

(Close-up, page 27)

Exam Task: Complete the Exam Task. Remember to make a plan before you start and to think about different adjectives you can use in each paragraph.

Exam Task

You recently ate at new restaurant but you were very unhappy with your meal.

Write a review of the restaurant for your school magazine. Give your opinion and say why you wouldn't recommend it to others. (100 words)

Guidelines:

1. Introduce the restaurant (name, location, how do you know?)
2. Describe the meal you ate? (what food you ate, how was the taste? How was the food presented?)
3. Give other details about the restaurant (waiters, environment / ambiance, interior decorations)
4. End the review (summary of your feelings). Say why you wouldn't recommend it (give reasons).

Exercise 1: Fill in the blanks with appropriate nouns, verbs or adjectives.

Review of King of Seafood Restaurant

Have you heard of King of Seafood _____ by name? It is opposite 7Eleven grocery shop and it looks _____ from the outside. So, I gave a _____.

I ordered a plate of _____ and _____ fish and my mother decided for a _____ set of crabs. The fish was _____ and _____.

My mother's crabs were _____ and tasted _____.

The lighting was very _____ and we couldn't really _____ our food.

The prices are _____.

My experience at the restaurant was _____ and I wouldn't _____ you having meals at the restaurant.

sweet	dim	Restaurant	recommend	burnt expensive	inviting	bitter	try	sour
smelly	undercooked	see	grilled	awful

LIVEWORKSHEETS