

PASSIVE

I. Choose the correct verb (active or passive).

Last night I saw/ was seen a fantastic film. It was called 'Into the wild', and it directed/ was directed by Sean Penn. It tells/ is told the true story of a young man named Christopher McCandless, who, after graduating from college went on a long, crazy adventure that landed him in the Alaskan wilderness. He found/ was found there an abandoned bus that he used for shelter. The film has a tragic end – McCandless died/ was died of starvation after about four months of living in the wilderness.

'Into the wild' based/ was based on a book by Jon Krakauer, which considers/ is considered to be good and accurate. Moreover, the film features/ is featured wonderful music written by Pearl Jam's Eddie Vedder.

This is simply one of those unique films that shouldn't miss/ be missed.

II. Complete the sentences with the words in the brackets in the correct form (active or passive).

1. The singer collapsed on the stage and _____ (take) to a local hospital.
2. I looked back because I was sure that somebody _____ (follow me).
3. Please wait while your request _____ (process).
4. I'm very sorry to inform you that the recommended brochure _____ (not produce) yet.
5. What type of goods can _____ (sell) on the Net?
6. Is it true that in 1724 Gabriel Fahrenheit _____ (invent) the first mercury thermometer?
7. Most films and television programmes nowadays _____ (make) on location.
8. I can assure that our damaged TV set _____ (replace) at our cost by the end of next week.

III. Rewrite the sentences so that the meaning stays the same, the beginning is already given. Add a phrase with by IF NECESSARY.

1. I noticed that they hadn't cleaned my hotel room.
I noticed that my hotel room _____.
2. This week they are holding auditions for an exciting new show.
This week auditions _____.
3. Shakespeare wrote 'Romeo and Juliet' early on in his literary career.
'Romeo and Juliet' _____.
4. Will they allow us to change rooms if we don't get along with our roommates?
Will we _____?
5. Nobody has told me about the party.
I _____.
6. Older children ignore my little brother.
My little brother _____.