The police arrived very quickly. Some of them with _____ went upstairs to Molly's room. Two detectives talked to Dr. Pratt in the hall. The family waited in the kitchen, the _____ sitting quietly at Diane's feet. Suddenly the door opened and the two detectives came in.

„Good morning. I am Detective Inspector Walsh and this is Sergeant Foster. Last night somebody put sleeping tablets in Mrs Clarkson's hot _____. We are going to question everybody; we need a room, please.“

Roger took them to Father's old office. First they wanted to talk to Uncle Albert. „I am going to ask some questions, Mr. King,“ the Inspector said, „and Sergeant Foster is going to write it all down.“ Albert looked _____.

„Tell me about last night. You were angry with Mrs. Clarkson.“

„Yes, I was,“ Albert said. „Everyone was angry. Diane wanted _____ to go to America. Then there's a man called Tom Briggs... He wants half of the garden for his farm. Molly was a rich woman. I need money because my _____, Molly's sister, is very ill. I told Molly this.“

„What happened next?“ the Inspector asked.

„Well, Moll got angry with _____ and went upstairs. We went to the kitchen for coffee. Jackie wanted everyone to go out and say good night to Molly.“

„And did you see Molly in her room?“

„Yes, I was tired and I went there first. I asked her for money again, but no, there was no money for her _____.“

„Did you hear any _____ after you went to bed?“

„Yes, later I heard someone. He – or she went downstairs. That was about midnight.“

„Thank you,“ the Inspector said. Can you ask Jackie Clarkson to come here?“
