

Choose one of the two options to finish the sentences about online presence and digital footprints below.

Everything that you do online will remain somewhere even if ...	you delete it.
	you do not tell anybody about it.
Information from your social media, browser history, photos and videos that you upload is known as your ...	private information.
	online presence.
All of the actions that you take online shape a piece of what is called your ...	social media profile.
	digital footprint.