The diagram illustrates musical notation on a staff with a treble clef. It shows how ledger lines are used to extend notes above the standard five-line staff. The top section, labeled 'NOTAS AGUDAS', shows a sequence of notes: a sharp note (F#) on the 4th line, a sharp note (F#) on the 3rd line, a sharp note (F#) on the 2nd line, a sharp note (F#) on the 1st line, a sharp note (F#) on the 0th line, and a sharp note (F#) on the -1st line. Below this, the notes are labeled: SOL LA SI DO RE MI FA. The bottom section, labeled 'NOTAS GRAVES', shows a sequence of notes: a flat note (Bb) on the 4th line, a flat note (Bb) on the 3rd line, a flat note (Bb) on the 2nd line, a flat note (Bb) on the 1st line, a flat note (Bb) on the 0th line, a flat note (Bb) on the -1st line, and a flat note (Bb) on the -2nd line. Below this, the notes are labeled: RE DO SI LA SOL FA MI.
