

DEFINING AND NON-DEFINING CLAUSES

CHOOSE:

1. Who is the girl which / that / no pronoun / who / whom is sitting on the bench over there.
2. A plumber is someone that / who / whose / whom job is to fix pipes when they stop working.
3. We spend 2 days in London, where / that / no pronoun my mum once lived.
4. That's the house which / in which / where / whom my aunt used to live when she was a girl.
5. My sister Martha, that / who / whose loves pets, wants to become a vet.
6. Did you buy the tickets which / what / whom / no pronoun you were looking for?
7. My uncle, whom / that / whose / who can was stolen last week, is very funny.

PUT IN THE PROPER PRONOUN

1. This is the flat _____ belongs to my mother-in-law.
2. The music _____ you are listening to is just great!
3. There are three places _____ I could live till the end of my life.
4. That's the boy _____ bike was destroyed by someone last night.
5. Betty, _____ knows three languages, is my neighbor.
6. Did you get the job _____ you were applying for?
7. We managed to hire a room _____ I found on an internet website.
8. Alan Brown, _____ quit his job yesterday, has moved to Toronto.