

Indefinite pronouns

Choose the correct word and write it down:

I met someone/something in the park.

He went something/somewhere after school.

Can anywhere/anyone lend me the book?

I found somewhere/something in my pocket.

Is everything/nothing OK?

It was a great concert, someone/everyone enjoyed it.

You can't go nowhere/anywhere.

Please, give me something/somewhere I can use.

Don't worry, nothing/anything bad happened.

They bought it everywhere/somewhere online.

Choose the correct option:

- a) I bought something new.
- b) I bought somewhere new.
- c) I bought anything new.

- a) They told me anything.
- b) They told me nothing.
- c) They told me anywhere.

- a) Is no-one hungry?
- b) Is anyone hungry?
- c) Is anything hungry?

- a) I am something close.
- b) I am anyone close.
- c) I am somewhere close.

- a) Everything is perfect!
- b) Anything is perfect!
- c) Somewhere is perfect!