

LET'S UNDERSTAND

Activity 4: Let's read again the e-mail and answer these questions:

⇒ It is important to write your answers in sentences:

- I usually wake up at 6 am.
- I always check my Whatsapp for a moment
- I hardly ever watch TV.

Subject+ adverb of frequency+ verb + complement

1. In your opinion, how old is Kirsty?

2. How does Micaela feel about meeting Fernando?

3. What time does Micaela wake up?

4. How does Micaela get entertained by using technology?

Activity 5: Let's read the definitions and complete the sentences:

What are adverbs of frequency?

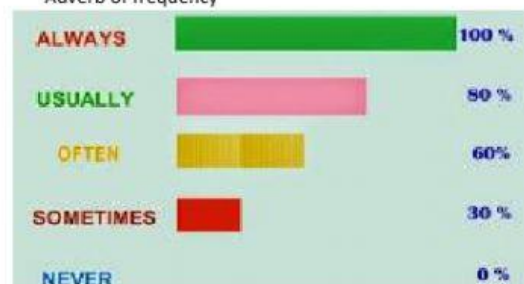

An adverb of frequency describes how often an action happens.

Example:

I usually wake up at 6 am. I always check my Whatsapp for a moment

Figure 4
Adverb of frequency

Note: adapted adverb of frequency (March 2017). Retrieved from <http://myenglishclass5thlevel.blogspot.com/2015/03/unit-11-world-of-gadgets-adverbs-of.html>

Phrasal Verb: It is an idiomatic phrase consisting of a verb and another element, for example:

Verb	Preposition	Meaning
Log	In/ on	to connect to a computer system by putting in a particular set of letters or numbers: password
Join	In	participate , take part
Turn	On	Power up
	Off	Power off
Sign	up	to join a group or organization

Activity 6: Let's read the sentences and choose (x) a phrasal verb:

1. To go into my Facebook account, I have to log in/up my password.
2. To join in/with my virtual classes I need to have the link.
3. The teacher says to turn up/on our cameras in our virtual classes.
4. Turn in/off your microphones to just listen the person who participates, the teacher reminds us.