

1. Write V if the animal is a vertebrate and I if it is an invertebrate.

crab

snake

turtle

frog

caterpillar

rabbit

2. Match the characteristics with the vertebrates.

Mammals

☐ Most of them can fly.

Reptiles

☐ They have mammary glands.

Birds

☐ They have scales.

Amphibians

☐ They have thin, moist skin.

3. Write T for true and F for false.

- _____ Snakes have a backbone.
- _____ Amphibians are invertebrates.
- _____ Animals that have an internal skeleton are called invertebrates.
- _____ A mammal's body is divided into a head, an abdomen and limbs.
- _____ Insects are invertebrates.