

TWELFTH NIGHT (by William Shakespeare)

- POST READING → Classify the following words according to the category they belong to. Respect the colour code.

SHIPWRECK

(referring to the destruction of a ship at sea by sinking or breaking up)

CASTAWAY

(referring to a person who is stranded in an isolated place)

CLOTHES SOAKING - ASHORE - SURVIVOR - BREAKING WAVES - REMAINS OF A SHIP - IN NEED OF (a job, food, shelter, company) - TO ADAPT BROKEN BITS OF WOOD - DESPERATION - WRECKAGE - TO SURVIVE

- POST READING → Put the main events of pages 11 - 13 in order.

From the shore, the lady who survived could see the remains – broken bits of wood – of the ship she had been on.
The sea captain told Viola that they were in Illirya, Duke Orsino's country.
She chose Cesario as her new name and went to ask Duke Orsino for a job.
There was a shipwreck and some survivors struggled to reach the shores of an unknown place.
Viola decided to dress up like a man to find a job that could help her survive on that land.
Viola was desperately looking for her brother, Sebastian but she couldn't find him.

■ POST READING → Complete the following sentences in your own words. (pages 14-15)

a) Duke Orsino is hopelessly in love with Lady Olivia but he can only dream about her because she...

b) Duke Orsino needs a messenger to...

c) When Viola came in dressed as Cesario, Orsino...

■ POST READING → TRUE OR FALSE???? Correct the false ones. (pages 16 – 17)

a) During the three days that Viola/Cesario spent with Duke Orsino, she felt in love with him.

T – F _____

b) The Duke's job was to convince Lady Olivia that Cesario was a good man.

T – F _____

c) Viola thought that her heart would break because she was feeling ill.

T – F _____

d) Duke Orsino was sure that Lady Olivia was going to listen to Cesario.

T – F _____

