

THE HUMAN SKELETON

A. Choose the right option:

1. A skeleton is a _____ frame.
2. The skeleton _____ and _____ our body.
3. It is made of _____.
4. Bones are _____, but they _____ heavy.

B. Drag each answer to its question:

1. What are skeletons made of?
2. Why must skeletons be hard and strong?
3. How many bones do we have?
4. Why is an adult's skeleton bigger than a child's skeleton?
5. How many bones do we have in our skull?
6. Does the skeleton grow?
7. How x-ray help us?

We have 206 bones.

We have only one bone in our skull.

Yes, it does.

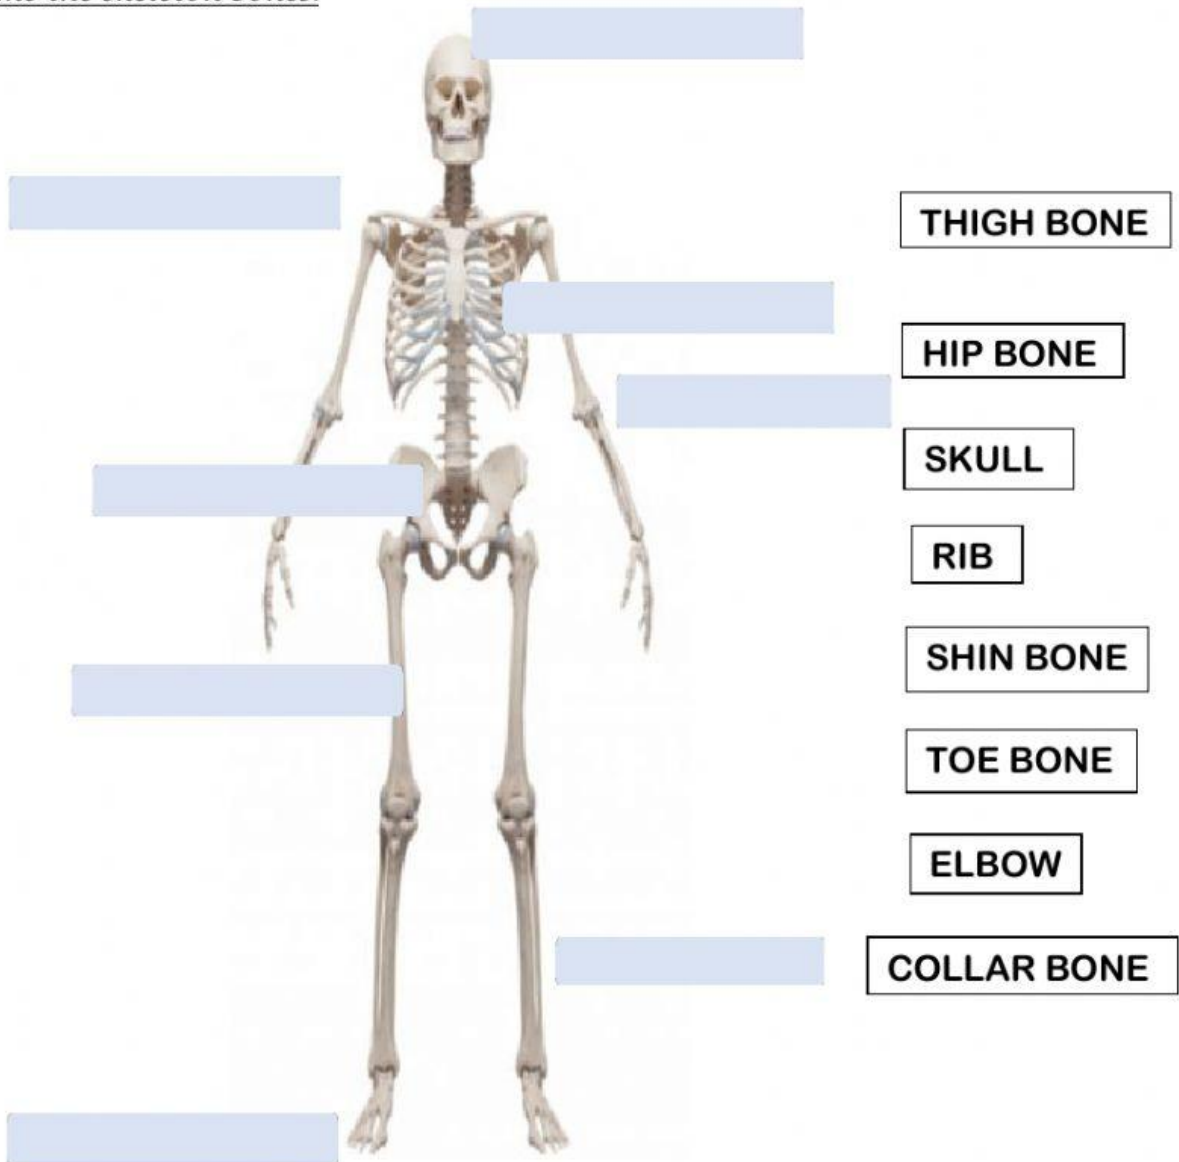

Because it grows.

Because it has to support our body.

They are made of bones.

They help us to see if we have a broken bone.

C. Name the skeleton bones:

D. MUSCLES: Order the sequence: How muscles work?

- The muscle gets shorter. []
- One muscle contracts. []
- The opposite muscle relaxes. []
- We do the action that we want. []
- It pulls on the bone it's joined to. []
- The bone moves. []

E. Join with arrows beginnings and endings of sentences:

- | | |
|--|-----------------------------------|
| 1. Muscles are attached to | a. because it's a special muscle. |
| 2. Muscles allow us to | b. in pairs. |
| 3. They are found | c. bones. |
| 4. They give our body | d. shape. |
| 5. They work | e. move |
| 6. The heart is not joined to any muscle | f. under your skin. |

F. MUSCLES: