Baca dialog di bawah dan jawab soalan-soalan yang berikutnya.

- Rohaida : How much longer do we have to wait for Mrs Meng and Puan Norli?
- Jennifer : Well, we were told to be in school by 8.00 a.m. All the girls are already here and they seem impatient for the netball practice to begin.
- Rohaida : I'll wait for another half an hour. If our teachers do not come by then, I'm going home.
- Jennifer : What shall I tell them when they find that you have gone home?
- Rohaida : Oh, don't worry about that. Yesterday, I told Puan Norli that I have to be home by 10.00 a.m. because it is my father's birthday today. We do not have a servant so I have to help my mother in the kitchen.
- Jennifer : Puan Norli is a very strict teacher. Will she allow you to leave before the end of the netball practice today?
- Rohaida : She may be strict but she is always willing to listen to our problems. Anyway, I'll be going home only half an hour before the end of the practice at 10.00 a.m. And by the way, please come to my house today for lunch.
- Jennifer : Thanks, Rohaida. I think I will. I love Malay food!

Question 22

Read the story below and answer the questions that follow.

Baca cerita di bawah dan jawab soalan-soalan berikutnya.

The sun was shining brightly in the sky when Nicky jumped out of her bed. Her family was going on a camping trip in a reserve park. It was going to be their initial trip to the park. Nicky started to get ready. Her brother, Nadeem was still sleeping soundly.

"Nadeem! Quick! Wake up! Or else we will be late!" Nicky screamed as she poked her brother. Later, she carried her bag and rushed downstairs. Her mother was already up and about in the kitchen, preparing breakfast. Nicky could smell the aroma of sausages, nuggets and fried eggs from the kitchen.

"Mummy, I am ready! Shall we leave now?" asked Nicky. "Hold on dear. We are going after breakfast. Have you packed all your things?" Nicky nodded and at once had her breakfast. Nadeem walked into the kitchen and yawned away. "Come on Nadeem! Eat up your breakfast! We are late already. Then, go straight to the car. I will do the cleaning and hence we can go."

Fifteen minutes later, the family was off on the road to the park. Everyone was in high spirits except Nadeem. He slept along the journey meanwhile Nicky looked out of the window. They passed by a beautiful beach and a fishing village. Nicky saw some cows grazing in the paddy field. Their father whistled happily as he drove. His wife looked at the map of the park.

"Here we are," said Nicky's father as they passed by a signboard that read 'Taman Rekreasi Jubli'. He drove through the big wooden gate into the park. There was a long queue of cars driving into the park too. Nicky screamed of delight when they got out of the car. "We are finally here!" While they were taking out their bags, her father asked, "Nadeem, where is your bag?" All eyes were on Nadeem. He tried all his best to smile and explain. They were not very happy. "Errr.....did I leave it at home?"
