

BEYOND B2 UNIT 9 reading comprehension p. 96

1. People have a tendency to choose one of the weakest passwords.
2. Shorter passwords are better than longer ones.
3. It is advisable to use the same password for different sites.
4. People are advised to keep their passwords written down and at hand, preferably near their computers.
5. The incident of sharing a password with a close person made Heidi absolutely astonished.
6. Heidi suggests not sharing any information online.
7. There is a thin chance that what you wrote on the Internet as a teenager will influence your future professional life.