

Language focus 2:

(don't) want to, would (n't) like to, would prefer to

Match the questions with the answers.

- |                                                 |                      |
|-------------------------------------------------|----------------------|
| 1 Does your friend want to come with us?        | <input type="text"/> |
| 2 Would you like to listen to music?            | <input type="text"/> |
| 3 Would Barry prefer to go to the sports shop?  | <input type="text"/> |
| 4 Do they want to invite Paul to come shopping? | <input type="text"/> |
| 5 Would Mary and Arthur like to go to a café?   | <input type="text"/> |
| 6 Would Claudia prefer to do the exam today?    | <input type="text"/> |
-
- |                      |                   |
|----------------------|-------------------|
| a Yes, he would.     | d Yes, she would. |
| b No, they wouldn't. | e Yes, I would.   |
| c No, she doesn't.   | f Yes, they do.   |

Choose the correct answers

- _____ you like to save more money?
- Would you _____ the black T-shirt or the white one?
- I'd _____ to go to the electronics shop to see some new mobile phones.
- She _____ to borrow money from her sister.
- Would you _____ to go to the bookshop?
- I _____ to buy a new car.

- Would like is more polite than want.
I want to have pizza for dinner, please. (= child to parent)
I'd like to have some chips with my fish, please. (= customer to waiter).
- We use would prefer to say what we want to do in a situation (not in general).
I would prefer to buy my new trainers in the sports shop.
- We use the infinitive with to after want, would like and would prefer.
She'd like to see the new shopping centre.

(not) enough + noun (существительное)

★ ★ Match the sentence beginnings (1-6) with the sentence endings (a-f).

- |                                                 |                      |
|-------------------------------------------------|----------------------|
| 1 We can't make a cake because ...              | <input type="text"/> |
| 2 They're not dancing here because ...          | <input type="text"/> |
| 3 I can't do all my homework because ...        | <input type="text"/> |
| 4 A lot of people were still hungry because ... | <input type="text"/> |
| 5 We can't all study for the exam because ...   | <input type="text"/> |
| 6 We want to buy a new tablet but ...           | <input type="text"/> |
-
- |                                    |
|------------------------------------|
| a ... there wasn't enough food.    |
| b ... we haven't got enough money. |
| c ... there isn't enough space.    |
| d ... I haven't got enough time.   |
| e ... there aren't enough eggs.    |
| f ... there aren't enough books.   |

We use enough + noun to say we've got what we need or want.
I can buy a new mobile phone. I've got enough money.
We use not enough + noun to say we've got less than we need or want.
I can't buy a new phone. I haven't got enough money.
Enough goes before the noun.
We can't make a cake. There isn't enough milk.