

Match the sentences on the left to those on the right.

We need to buy some meat for dinner.

We can buy it 50% cheaper.

The jumper is half price this week.

Water's coming out from the kitchen sink.

They have to give us a full refund.

There's a butcher's over there.

Why don't we go window shopping?

We need to get all our money back.

We have to call in a plumber.

We can just look at the items.

Choose the correct option

These trousers are too big for me. They don't wrap / fit.

I haven't got much money, so I can't demand / afford these expensive shoes.

We waited for a long time in the long row / queue to the checkout.

You should always keep the receipt / bill in case you need to return what you bought.

It's a good idea to shop away / around before buying something so you can check the price

The sweatshirt had a hole in it, so I took it back to the shop and asked for a full refund / demand.

It's a gift, so could you drop / wrap it in some nice paper, please?

I ordered the speakers yesterday, so we can expect the receipt / delivery in a few days.

There was a sale in the shop and we got a really good discount / credit on the clothes we bought.

I spend most of my pocket money on / for computer games.

Finish the words

A chance to buy something at a really low price is a ba_____.

A person who gives legal help to people is a la_____.

When you buy something that another person has used, you buy it se_____ -h_____.

You keep your money in a bank ac_____.

A person who repairs water installations is a pl_____.

An item which costs too much is ov_____.

A shop where you can buy meat is a bu_____.

A line of people waiting in a shop is a qu_____.

The rest of the money you get when you pay is your ch_____.