

SK CATHOLIC ENGLISH SCIENCE YEAR 3 UNIT 4 ANIMALS
PDPR WEEK 14 TUESDAY
28.04.2021

Dentition of Animals

Fill in the blanks.

This animal consumes

_____.

The animal's eating

habit is _____.

This animal feeds on _____

The animal's eating habit is _____.

This animal eats

The animal's eating

habit is _____.

This animal has very sharp _____ to _____ meat.

This animal's eating habit is _____.

This animal has very strong _____ to _____ plants and _____ to _____ plants for easier swallowing.

This animal's eating habit is _____

This animal has canines _____
to _____ meat, Incisors to _____ food, and molars to _____ the food.

This animal's eating habit is _____.

Tick the correct statement.

Tigers have molars to help them tear their food.

Giraffes have sharp canines to cut the leaves and molars to grind the food.

Lions and wolves have long and sharp incisors to help them tear the meat.

Omnivores such as monkeys have incisors, canines, and molars to help them feed on plants and other animals.

Cows, goats, and horses have incisors to help them cut the food.