

Speaker 1

This photo reminds me of me and my friends. We always _____ in the station when we go out because we all get the train into town. I'm not sure what's happening here though... The girls look like close friends, but the guy might just be, er, a passer-by, asking for directions or something.

Speaker 2

There's a lot of building work in Nigeria at the moment, and my job is organising construction teams. I'm really busy all the time... so, er, most of my friends are work colleagues. That's true for a lot of people, isn't it? The only time I see my other friends is when I _____ them, you know, at the supermarket or places like that.

Speaker 3

Ah yes, I love having a family meal like this. Looking after two young children is a lot of work, but it's fun, too. I'm lucky because I get a lot of help from my husband's family – although my mother-in-law's always calling, you know, to ask about the children!

Speaker 4

I've played the cello all my life and on Wednesdays I practise with a group of musicians. It's pretty informal – you don't have to come every week, you can just _____ when you like. Sometimes everybody comes and the hall's really crowded! I _____ well with the other players – there's one guy in particular who I've been talking to a lot... I think he'd like to _____ me... but he's a bit shy!

Speaker 5

When I _____ with my last boyfriend I thought I'd never meet another nice guy. But a few months later, a friend introduced me to Roman. We got on so well and had so much in common that six months later we decided to get married. This is our big day. We invited everyone we knew – friends, family, in-laws, colleagues, er... ex-flatmates... It was the best party I've ever been to.

Speaker 6

This is my favourite sport. I play for a, er, a handball team in Germany. It was a natural decision for me because my father was a handball player too, and he taught me about the sport... The thing I like best about it is my team-mates. We play together, we go out together... It's great. I _____ really _____ all the guys in the team.