

So... (adjective/adverb), that...

1. Match the halves of the sentences.

He was so tired	that I fell asleep.
It was so hot	that I couldn't sit down.
There were so many people on the bus	that I couldn't hear the film.
My little brother made so much noise	that I failed it.
The film was so boring	that I can't go out now.
The test was so difficult	that I had to take off my coat.
I've got so much homework	that he couldn't get up early.

2. Connect the 2 sentences with so (much).... that.

-
-
- The box was really heavy. I hurt my back when I lifted it.
- The restaurant was crowded. We had to wait for half an hour to get a table.
- The weather was nice. We went to the beach yesterday.
- The film was exciting. I'm going to watch it again.
- There are many things in my handbag. I can't find my mobile.