

Jim Henson & Frank Oz: Two Very Special People

Today, we take for granted all the technological advances in movies and television. We can do many special effects by (1) compiuter. But in the past, everything had to be done by hand. Two people that were very good at this were Jim Henson & Frank Oz.

(2) Four me, they are very special. I never met them, but they are very special because they had a great impact in my life. They were master puppeteers. A puppeteer is a (3) perzon who makes and uses puppets to tell stories. A puppet is a fluffy or wooden character that is handled by a person to make it come to life. They told great (4) storyes with their puppets such as Sesame Street. They also created the Muppets Show. I grew up watching these shows and I really loved them. They also created fantastic films with a fantastic (5) unyverse that had many fantastic creatures: The Dark Crystal and The Labyrinth. I became a fan of these two guys after I watched these fantastic films. Frank Oz created the character Yoda from the Star Wars films. He handled the Yoda puppet and also made his voice. I also (6) louve Star Wars, so I became a bigger fan after he created the Yoda character.

That's (7) way they are (8) bery special. They made me love (9) fantasi since a very early age. Now fantasy has become my favorite genre thanks to these (10) twoo special guys: Jim Henson & Frank Oz.
