

How to learn a language effectively?

I. Complete the sentences with the correct verb form.

Use First and Second Conditionals
MIND! 'd = would

- Lucy, if you (0) listened (to listen) to me more carefully, your results would be better.
- If Pete checks his work, he (1) _____ (not to have) many mistakes.
- You don't take English seriously, Jane. If you (2) _____ (to do) exercises regularly, you would pass the test.
- Fred, you'd do more creative projects if you (3) _____ (to attend) the lessons regularly.
- If I (4) _____ (to be) you, I'd ask your teacher for help more often.
- If you (5) _____ (to study) grammar harder, you won't be afraid of exams.
- If you took English lessons seriously, you (6) _____ (can) do tests better.
- If you (7) _____ (to have) more time to do all your homework, you'd speak English more fluently.