Mom: I saw it two hours ago. 1-_____:) You can check there.

Kid: Please, stop joking! There is an important school project and I need to read it now!

Mom: I see. What do you want me to do?

Kid: Help me find it. I put it on the table yesterday, but now it is not there. Where did it go?

Mom: I cleaned your room, but did not see it. Where were you two hours ago?

Kid: I was at the park with my friends. We were playing.

Mom: Interesting! When did you come back home, then?

Kid: 2-_____. Why do you ask me these questions?

Mom: I try to act like a dedective. These questions will help us find it. Listen! I have another idea.

Kid: Please tell me.

Mom: Why don't you go to the bookstore and get a new one?

Kid: That sounds great, but I don't know the place of bookstore. Where is it?

Mom: It is between the movie theater and museum. I'm sure you saw it before.

Kid: No, I did not. Is it behind the school?

Mom: Nope! There is an hospital behind the school. The bookstore is opposite the music store.

Kid: Ok. I remember it. 3-_____.

Mom: That is correct. Get dressed and leave now.

Kid: (After some time. . . . .) Mooooom, moom. 4-_____. You can't believe where it was.

Mom: What did you find?

Kid: My book. It was under the bed. I think it fell when I slept.

Mom: Maybe. Happy to hear that. I see you got dressed. Now, go to the grocery and buy some fruits.

Kid: Pleaseeee nooooo. Also, I don't know where it is.

Mom: 5-_____. Go get them now!!!
