

Introduction

An introduction starts our book and is a way to get people excited about our how-to book. There are 3 parts: Hook the reader, tell what you are writing about and a list of materials.

Tell the reader how cool or important it would be to learn this skill. You can also ask a question.

Make a list of materials

Tell us what you are going to teach

Read this book to learn about...