Task 2. Reading

Right place, wrong person

The place is perfect, the weather is wonderful, but if you're with the wrong person, a holiday can be a disaster.

Read the first text and answer the questions about Joe.

Sam. Last October I went on holiday to Turkey for two weeks with my girlfriend, Sue. The holiday began well, the weather was great, and we spent two perfect days in Antalya. I wanted to stay in hostels, which were basic but clean, but Sue said they weren't comfortable, so we stayed in an expensive hotel. I wanted to experience the local culture, but Sue just wanted to go shopping. It was awful! I hated it. We argued about everything!

I thought I knew Sue very well, but you don't know a person until you travel with them. When we arrived home, we decided to break up.

1. Where did Joe go?
2. Who did he go with?
3. Where did he stay?
4. What was the weather like?
5. Why didn't he enjoy the holiday?

Read the second text and mark if these sentences are T (true), F (false) or NS (not stated).

Susan. Last Spring, my best friend Emi and I booked a holiday in Venice. We rented a small apartment for a week with a fantastic view of a city. At the last moment another friend, Linda, asked if she could come too. We felt sorry for her because she had problems with her boyfriend, so we said yes.

Venice was magical, and the weather was perfect, but the holiday was a disaster for one simple reason: Linda was so mean! She has a good job so she's not poor, but she didn't want to pay for anything! She was always complaining about money, she wanted to go to cheap restaurants and didn't want to visit museums and galleries that cost money. The worst thing was that although Sue and I paid for apartment, Linda never invited us with a coffee or a drink!

I'd love to go back to Venice one day ... but without Linda.

6. Susan and Emi invited Linda to a holiday in Venice.
7. They stayed in an apartment for seven days.
8. Linda had money problems.
9. Susan, Emi and Linda shared all the expenses.
10. Emily and Sue want to go back to Venice alone.
