

NAME :

D) Mets les phrases suivantes à la voie passive :

Rappel :

Attention, si le temps de la phrase à la voie active est au futur, Be sera conjugué au futur dans la phrase à la voie passive :

Mr. King will pronounce a speech tomorrow.

A speech will be pronounced by Mr. King tomorrow.

Etc avec tous les autres temps....

1. The bus driver asked Rosa Parks to give up her seat.
2. Martin Luther King led the Civil Rights Movement.
3. Black people organised a boycott to protest against discrimination in the buses.
4. People speak English in India.
5. The policemen have just arrested Rosa Parks.
6. They will certainly declare segregation illegal.

II) Complète en exprimant l'obligation, la permission et l'interdiction au passé :

had to - Was/were allowed to - wasn't/weren't allowed to

Children in the 19th century

In the nineteenth century, a lot of poor children _____ work all day to help their families. They _____ to stay in bed late or play. They _____ to go to school.

Rich children _____ to read and have fun.

III) Ecoute un journaliste qui parle d'Elizabeth Eckford et écris
ce que tu as compris en FRANCAIS: