

Choose the phrase and drag it to the right sentence.

whatsoever a feeling of being trapped remember it as if it were yesterday store memories in a more effective way and in more precise detail have a vivid memory of vaguely remembered childhood memories fade

there's always something to keep our minds occupied are no longer capable of doing nothing boredom steers us away from useless activities

1. I feel terrible when somebody suffers a lot and you can do nothing at all to make the situation better. It's such _____.

2. If we speak about children, their memory is something really mysterious. They remember most of the things better and they _____.

3. She thought she _____ seeing the farmer's market before. But when she had a look at it for the first time after twenty years, all memories came back.

4. I _____ asking this man for a ham-and-cheese sandwich. It really stuck into my memory.

5. When you start yawning or feel as if you fall asleep, it means you are bored to death. This is how our _____.

6. In this age of instant communication multitasking is undoubtedly the feature students features perfectly well. That is why it is difficult for them to relax in most cases as they _____.

7. Even if we try not to think about work or other problems at work, _____. Therefore, we usually feel exhausted even though we haven't worked hard.

8. After _____, we start collecting other more important memories of our life that need some space in our mind to store.

9. I _____ a man telling me that he had to keep awake at night in order to keep the rats away from his children.

10. I can honestly say that I have no interest _____ in the royal family.