

Choose the right phrase to complete the sentences.

it is estimated that two for the price of one end up owing a lot of money

the main entrance of the shopping centre the workers aren't paid enough has harmful effect on the environment people have queued overnight spend more than you intended keen to get a bargain it's amazing to realize consume less than they buy look for special offers think about spending habits

1. If we want to reduce the overconsumption in our world, we should educate people at first to use everything in moderation as they now _____.

2. _____ that you are not addicted to buying things to cheer yourself up anymore.

3. _____ an average person spends 3 hours a week while shopping, which is an incredible number.

4. I was surprised to see _____ decorated for Christmas at the beginning of November.

5. There are many of us who might lose their sense of moderation, start buying things in leasing and _____.

6. Such countries like India, Shri Lanka and many more are famous for their cheap work force as _____.

7. The more time you spend in a shopping centre, the more purchases you make. Therefore, you might _____.

8. Psychologists advise people not to be hooked by those marketing tricks like getting something for half-price or buying _____. It's all about to spend you more.

9. Do you usually try to save some money and _____? Don't be tricked. Good things are never cheap.

10. When releasing new iPhone 12, _____ to be the first to have this brand smartphone.

11. If you are short of money at the end of the month, you should _____.

12. Overconsumption not only has an impact on our finances, but it also _____.

13. My mother could go to eight different shops to check the price of a product she needs just because she's _____.