

You will hear an interview with a rap musician called Joey Small who has just started a new career as a movie actor. For questions 1 – 7, choose the best answer A, B or C.

1 Joey thinks the hardest part of making the movie was

- A acting and roller-skating at the same time
- B adapting to how the filming was organized.
- C convincing people that he was able to act.

2 What does Joey say about roller-skating?

- A He mastered the moves relatively quickly.
- B He learnt how to do it especially for the movie.
- C He couldn't get used to wearing old-fashioned skates.

3 Because the film was set in the 1970s, Joey had to

- A wear clothes that didn't suit him.
- B talk in a way that made him laugh.
- C follow the instructions of acting coaches.

4 When asked about his co-star, Joey says that

- A he appreciated the help she gave him.
- B he disliked her telling him what to do.
- C he found her rather unfriendly.

5 What advice does Joey have for young actors?

- A Make sure you know your lines perfectly.
- B Don't attempt to speak too naturally.
- C Try to hear what you sound like.

6 How does Joey feel about being famous?

- A He wishes people would show him more respect.
- B He accepts that he cannot have total privacy.
- C He dislikes having to be polite to strangers.

7. How does Joey feel about the future?

- A He'd like to concentrate on acting work.
- B He's keen to go back to being a rap performer.
- C He thinks he's too young to have definite plans.