

Writing Mixed Skill Review 2

Graded Assignment

Directions: Read each sentence. Select the correct word in the sentence to avoid using a double negative.

- 1.) That won't do you no/any good.
- 2.) I won't bake no/any cakes today.
- 3.) I didn't steal nothing/anything.
- 4.) I don't have any/no time for supper.
- 5.) She won't do nothing/anything productive today.

6. Which sentence has a double negative?

- A. You haven't heard anything yet, folks.
- B. Listen here, Sam, this won't do you no good.
- C. We don't need our badges today.
- D. I can't go anywhere with you tonight.

7. In the sentence below not hardly should be written _____ ?

I'm not hardly doing anything.

- A. I am hardly doing nothing.
- B. I am not doing nothing.
- C. I am hardly not doing anything.
- D. I am hardly doing anything.

Directions: Select the correct pronoun for each sentence.

8.) Some potatoes fell out of their/its bag.

9.) The girl spent her/she gift cards right after the birthday party.

10.) The player went to their/her awards ceremony.

11.) The kittens played with their/its ball of yarn.

12.) The girl colored in her/she picture neatly.

13.) Directions: Select the sentences in which commas are used correctly.

The store is in Abingdon, Massachusetts.	Ask Thea, Calvin, or Hector for help.
My birthday is May 24 2004.	I am great at volleyball swimming and dancing.

Directions: Select the correct adjective or adverb for each sentence.

14.) The noise loudly/loud echoed.

15.) I played well/welly at the game.

16.) The neighbor asked nice/nicely to borrow our lawn mower.

17.) Loudly/Loud noises are annoying.

18.) I'm a good/well player.

19.) We have a nice/nicely new neighbor.

20.) The girls happily/happy skipped home.