

Conwy Castle

Magnificent medieval fortress still towers over town after 700 years

Thanks to restored _____ staircases in its great towers you can walk a complete circuit around the battlements of Conwy Castle. We _____ recommend it. This is one of the most magnificent medieval fortresses in Europe.

In the distance rise the craggy _____ of Snowdonia and _____ below you are the harbour and narrow streets of Conwy – still protected by an unbroken 1,400-yard (1.3km) ring of town walls.

It's enough to take the _____ away. Especially when you consider that King Edward I and his architect Master James of St George built both castle and walls in a _____ believable four years between 1283 and 1287.

Conwy takes its place _____

Edward's other great castles at

Beaumaris, Harlech and Caernarfon as a

World Heritage Site.

This famous fortress is exceptionally well _____. It contains the most intact set of medieval royal apartments in Wales. The high curtain wall and eight lofty towers rise almost as _____ as when they were built more than 700 years ago.

So don't be afraid to climb those _____, if you can, for the full Conwy experience. There isn't a better place in Britain to stand on the battlements and dream.
