

7.4 Defining and non-defining relative clauses

1 Choose the correct options to complete the sentences.

- 0 That's the man which / who lives next door to us.
- 1 This is the house where / which I was born.
- 2 This is my favourite pen who / which my mum gave me.
- 3 Which is the cafe that / who you like?
- 4 There's a house in our village where / which is 400 years old.
- 5 My sister's the person that / which usually helps me with my homework.
- 6 Reno's is a coffee shop where / that you can buy huge ice creams!
- 7 What's the name of the teacher which / who gives you piano lessons?
- 8 There's a new department store in town that / who sells great clothes.

2 Complete the sentences using who, which or where.

- 0 Our old house in Scotland, where I was born, isn't there any more.
- 1 A famous rock singer, _____ lives in New York, went to school with my dad!
- 2 Someone stole my bicycle, _____ my parents gave me for my birthday.
- 3 My brother, _____ is now 25, still has some of his old toys in his room.
- 4 The local park, _____ lots of children go to play, is going to become a supermarket!
- 5 Our school football coach, _____ also plays in the local team, has taught us lots this term.
- 6 The most peaceful place in our house is my bedroom, _____ I can relax after school.
- 7 I've just finished watching a film on TV, _____ was about sharks.

4 Join the sentences together, using who, which, or where.

- 0 This is the house. My grandma lives here.
This is the house where my grandma lives.
- 1 That's the teacher. He teaches us Maths.

- 2 My friend lives in a big house. It's next to the park.

- 3 Here's the beach. We always go swimming here.

- 4 In this shop there's a skateboard. It costs £100!

- 5 This is the student. She helps me with my homework.

- 6 Edinburgh is in Scotland. It's a great place to visit.

- 7 My friend lives next door. She's in my class.
