

TASK 1.

Match the words on the left to their definitions on the right.

1. invalidate	a. to make people obey a rule or law
2. damages	b. a civil proceeding commenced by writ or in such other manner as may be prescribed by rule or court
3. action	c. a person or a group of people who take part in a transaction or legal proceeding
4. enforce	d. to make a document, claim, etc., no longer legally or officially accepted
5. party	e. money that a court orders someone to pay some one else for harming them or their property

TASK 3.

Complete the sentences translating the words and word combinations in brackets.

1. Many people think of a contract as a (письмова угода) _____ between people. However, there are many kinds of (усних угод) _____ between people which the law of most countries describes as (угоди)
2. One of the most common (юридичних позовів) _____ is to claim that the contract has existed and that one of the parties is in (порушення угоди) _____.
3. There are many everyday (угод) _____ which most people never think of as contracts.
4. In order that the agreement should be a contract (сторони) _____ must have shown an intention that their agreement should have legal consequences.
5. In order that a (належно оформлена угода) between the (сторонами) _____ should come into existence certain essential requirements must be fulfilled.
6. The simple contract must be supported by (зустрічним задоволенням) _____.
7. In many systems of law there is a written code stating exactly what is required to make a contract and what (права та обов'язки) _____ of contractors are.