LIVE LIVEWORKSHEETS

1 Read and think.

We use like to talk about things we like or like doing. Look at these sentences and read the rules.

I like pizza.

Krishna likes playing the guitar.

The verb like can be followed by a noun.

To describe an activity, the verb like can be followed by a verb ending in -ing.

We use would like to talk about things we want to do or to have. Now look at these sentences and read the rules.

I'd like an ice-cream.

Saeed would like to invite Krishna to go roller skating with him.

Would like can be followed by a noun or a verb.

If would like is followed by a verb, we use to + the infinitive.
