

John Williams

Life Dates:

Period:

John Williams was born and raised in _____. His father, John Williams Sr., was a _____. Thus he was exposed to _____ very _____. He took _____ at a young age and later learned _____, _____, and _____. In 1948, his family moved to _____. He briefly studied _____ at the _____ _____ until 1951, when he was _____ into the _____.

During his three years with the Air Force he _____ and began _____.

After his service, he returned to _____ and attended the _____.

He worked as a _____ in clubs and for recordings. During this time he also studied _____ with _____. Williams returned to Los Angeles and began work as a _____.

He can be heard playing on films like:

During this time he also began composing for television writing for shows like _____ and _____.

It was not until he was asked by then aspiring director, _____, to compose music for the movie _____.

John Williams is probably best known for his work with _____ and _____.

This professional relationship birthed some of the _____.

Williams composed music for the films:

Williams was heavily influenced by the composer _____ and his use of the _____ (_____).

His themes are widely recognized, with some of his most famous coming from the _____.

As of 2018, John Williams is the _____ film composer of all time. He has been nominated for _____ Academy Awards and has won _____. He has also won _____ Golden Globe Awards, several Emmy's, and several Grammy's. His score composed for _____ was selected in 2005 by the _____ as the greatest _____.
