

PRESENT SIMPLE PASSIVE

ACTIVE	My parents	buy	presents
PASSIVE	Presents	are bought	by my parents

My parents buy presents.

Presents are bought by my parents.

Complete the sentences using "am, is or are" to make passive.

Nice clothes are sold in this shop.

The Tyra Banks show _____ watched by girls.

A lot of fashion blogs _____ read by teenage girls.

Baggy trousers _____ often worn by teenage boys.

I _____ asked to answer questions in class.

Football matches _____ usually watched by men.

Complete sentences using present simple PASSIVE form of a verb in brackets.

The room is cleaned by a maid. (clean)

Our birthday cakes _____ by my mother. (bake)

Houses _____ for wedding parties. (decorate)

The bill _____ by my brother. (pay)

The tests _____ by the students. (take)

All types of books _____ by this company. (print)

Make this active sentences into PASSIVE.

They organize birthday parties.

Birthday parties are organized by them.

People use computers to surf the internet.

_____.

The students eat lunch in the canteen.

_____.

That company makes wool and silk scarves.

_____.

The museum doesn't allow food and drinks inside.

_____.

People take photos with a camera.

_____.