

Episode 6

The FA Board votes to _____ Blackburn. Kinnaird is _____. Later Kinnaird has it out with his friends about their _____. Walsh, now the head of the Lancashire FA holds a meeting to figure out how to fight the _____. Suter offers to talk to Kinnaird. Walsh gives Suter a new _____ so that he will fit in with the elite. Suter discusses the merits of professional players. Suter argues that the elites banning of professionals is not fair because they are not working all day to put _____ on the table. They _____ agree they play for the love of the game. At the Board _____. Suter argues in favour of letting Blackburn play. The Board stands by their _____ to ban Blackburn from the cup. Walsh tells him the Lancashire FA and _____ other county FAs will _____ from the FA cup and form a new association. Kinnaird would be the new president. Kinnaird argues that the working-class teams will _____ the elite teams unless they include the working class. Kinnaird persuades the Board to let Blackburn play. At the match, the 1883 FA Club Final, the Etonians are playing _____ but in a very physical _____. The score is 0-0 at half-time. One of the Etonian players is _____ but they agree to keep playing anyway. Suter scores with a _____ from Tommy's pass. In the last moments of the match, Kinnaird scores on a _____. The teams agree to _____. Suter sits out a player to make the match _____ and gives the players a rousing pep talk. Suter scores the winning _____. Suter lifts the cup to huge cheers. In 1885, the FA officially allows professional players and an amateur team never wins the cup again. Kinnaird becomes the FA President and serves for 33 years until his death in 1923.

Word Bank :

ban (suspension/interdiction)
 betrayal (trahison)
 both (tous les deux)
 breakaway (contre-attaque)
 decision (décision)
 expel (expulser)
 extra time (prolongation)
 fair (juste, honnête)
 food (nourriture)
 furious (furieux)
 goal (but)
 header (coup de tête)
 injured (blessé)
 meeting (reunion)
 most (la plupart)
 overwhelm (surpasser)
 suit (costume)
 way (manière)
 well (bien)
 withdraw (se retirer)