

1. "Nowadays, most people often amuse themselves by sharing scores of photos on social media or by shopping to their heart's content online." (para. 1)

Based on the context, if we do something to our heart's content, we tend to feel.... <複選題>

- (A) satisfied (B) distressed (C) delighted (D) embarrassed (E) confused

2. Why is it of crucial importance that we be cautious when browsing websites?

Please select the statements that the author uses to support his argument. <複選題>

- (A) Chances are we carelessly reveal our personal data.
 (B) The virtual world is so appealing that people tend to spend more time on it.
 (C) The disinformation and rumors spread quickly in the cyberspace.
 (D) Our personal data is likely to be tracked and manipulated by the Internet server.

3. Fill in the blanks to finish the summary of the case.

According a report in 2014, "This Is Your Digital Life" appealed to _____ people for they can have _____ quizzes online as long as they _____ their Facebook accounts. However, the truth is the survey provider can not only _____ access to their personal information, but also get to know their friends'. In the end, the personal data leakage will fall into the _____ and get misused.

_____ 4. What should we be aware of when we permit the microphone access on our mobile devices?

- (A) Some advertisers will secretly check our browsing history on the browsers.
 (B) The sounds in surrounding environment will be recorded and picked up.
 (C) When typing with voice recognition, we are also helping the system improve the accuracy.
 (D) It will shorten the battery life so that we have to charge our phones more frequently.

5. Matching.

(A) We should avoid using apps to sign in to third-party apps.

(B) Not until you've checked your privacy settings should you use social media platforms.

(C) We'd better clear our browsing data and install appropriate blockers.

(D) Transactions should be executed on trusted and well-known websites.

★ Sharing financial information online is risky.

★ We can minimize the amount of information shared publicly.

★ We should deter companies from using trackers to monitor our online behavior.

★ Others won't be able to seize our information and therefore violate our privacy.

