

O&M HOSTOS SCHOOL

O&M Hostos School

Science exam for 3rd grade

Name: _____

Teacher's name: _____

- I. Complete the chart putting the name of each animal in the correct category of types of animals.

Mammals	Birds	Amphibians	Reptiles	Fish

Bat ostrich lizard turtle octopus dog whales blue jay Macaw salamander newts Boa crocodile ray sharks

- II. Trace a line to the correct definition:

- Endangered

This is when the species is not alive anymore, because they all die

- Extinct

When their habitat is damaged and these animals don't know where to live anymore.

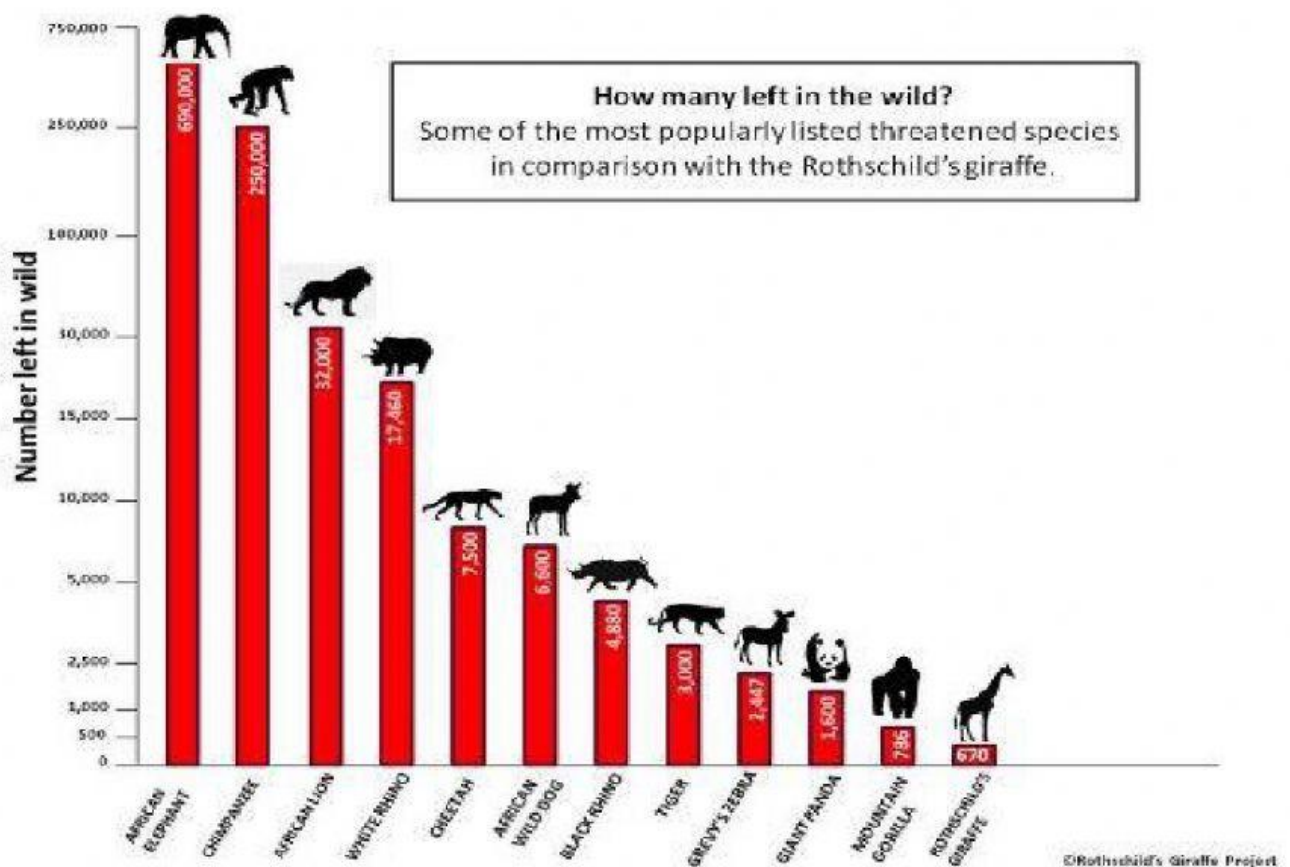

- Threatened

When the number of species lower so much, there is just a few of them alive.

III. Complete the text selecting the correct answer.

- a) These types of animals have fur, they give birth to their babies and feed them with milk. _____
- b) The penguin is an animal that likes to swim, they have feathers, wings and 2 legs, they are _____
- c) Dinosaurs existed a long time ago. These animals are _____

IV. Observe the bar graph and answer the questions.

1) Which species have more animals left?

2) Which species have least animals left?

3) How many species have less than 15,000?

4) How many species have more than 15,000?
