

Choose the pictures that represent examples of FRICTION.

Match the words to their definition

Induction

It occurs when one body rubs against another.

Rubbing

When an already electrified body touches another and transfers this property to it.

Contact

It occurs at a distance when one electrified body approaches another.

Expansion

It is the increase in size of a material when it is heated

Friction

This is the resistance of motion when one object rubs against another.

Drag the pictures into the correct column.

REFLECTION

REFRACTION

