

TECHNOLOGY VOCABULARY

Across

3. a machine which humans can control with a computer to do some jobs.
5. clothes or accessories which have computer and electronic technology built into them.
6. a small computer that is very light and has got a touch screen.
9. A machine for making an object from a digital model.
10. a mobile device with a touch screen which is worn on the wrist.

Down

1. an object you wear on your head so that you experience a virtual world.
2. Light aircraft controlled with a remote control.
4. a mobile device with a touch screen that can do many things that a computer can do, usually with internet access.
7. A source of power with chemical energy.
8. A tiny piece of material use in electronic devices.