

Are you annoyed or are you annoying?

Adjectives ending in -ed and -ing

PLEASE NOTICE: Somebody is -ed if something (or somebody else) is -ing. If something is -ing, it makes you -ed.

Choose the correct ending for each verb and fill in the blanks.

- |   |                |
|---|----------------|
| 1. Sophie was really ----- with her sister for teasing her.         | 1. annoy       |
| 2. The film we watched last weekend was truly -----.                | 2. annoy       |
| 3. Mona Lisa's smile is quite -----.                                | 3. intrigue    |
| 4. Peter felt ----- about his misbehaviour.                         | 4. embarrass   |
| 5. Your remarks were ----- . You should apologize!                  | 5. insult      |
| 6. These numbers on teen's alcohol addiction are rather -----.      | 6. disturb     |
| 7. Don't be -----! It's not going to hurt!                          | 7. frighten    |
| 8. This has been the most ----- moment of my life!                  | 8. frighten    |
| 9. Sometimes people feel a ----- need to eat chocolate.             | 9. compel      |
| 10. Susie felt rather ----- with her performance.                   | 10. frustrate  |
| 11. It's really ----- when we don't achieve our goals!              | 11. frustrate  |
| 12. It's ----- cold in this room! Haven't they got central heating? | 12. freeze     |
| 13. I feel ----- when I listen to classical music.                  | 13. relax      |
| 14. Listening to classical music is quite -----.                    | 14. relax      |
| 15. Ben didn't understand the teacher's question. He looked -----.  | 15. puzzle     |
| 16. ----- subjects are the most challenging.                        | 16. puzzle     |
| 17. They gave me a warm ----- hug!                                  | 17. welcome    |
| 18. There was a quite ----- chocolate cake on the table.            | 18. tempt      |
| 19. These days children's games are more -----.                     | 19. entertain  |
| 20. The last week was extremely ----- for me.                       | 20. exhaust    |
| 21. I felt completely ----- this week.                              | 21. exhaust    |
| 22. The pupils were ----- with the test results.                    | 22. please     |
| 23. The test results were very ----- for both pupils and teacher.   | 23. please     |
| 24. I am truly ----- by your attitude.                              | 24. astound    |
| 25. Your attitude is quite -----! You should be more careful!       | 25. astound    |
| 26. I am ----- at you! Why did you do that?                         | 26. disappoint |
| 27. The final exam results were rather -----.                       | 27. disappoint |
| 28. Pupils get ----- very easily.                                   | 28. distract   |
| 29. I won't answer that! Your question is truly -----!              | 29. insult     |
| 30. Are you ----- with your job?                                    | 30. bore       |
| 31. I think my job is not at all -----! I love it!                  | 31. bore       |