

Decide which forms of the verbs ought(to), to be (to) and need you will use to complete these sentences.

- 1) Nina, you do as you are told. We all expect you to be a good girl.
- 2) How much do you think I will wait? You wait. Mr Smitt will see you immediately.
- 3) Your cousin is at hospital. You visit her.
- 4) Mother, must I go shopping? No, you, dear. I have already been to the shops.
- 5) The director come at exactly five o'clock. We have been informed about it.
- 6) You listen more carefully, then you'll understand your teacher better.
- 7) We have been informed that the delegation of the American congressmen arrive in April.
- 8) You wash up. I have already washed the plates.
- 9) You drive so fast. It's dangerous.
- 10) You eat so much chocolate cake