

Name: _____ Class : _____ Date: _____

Complete the article with the present simple or present continuous form of the verbs in brackets.

Meet Rachel – future windsurfing champion

by Jon Jones

Today I <sup>1</sup>'m talking (talk) to Rachel Connor, an amazing windsurfer. Rachel is twenty-three and <sup>2</sup>____ (live) in Cornwall in the south-west of England. She <sup>3</sup>____ (come) from England, she's from Australia. Rachel comes from a very sporting family.

'My family all <sup>4</sup>____ (love) sports. My mum <sup>5</sup>____ (swim) in the sea every day and my dad <sup>6</sup>____ (cycle) in France at the moment. My brother Martin and I like windsurfing,' says Rachel. 'We're very lucky because our house is near the beach and we <sup>7</sup>____ (train) every day.'

Rachel usually <sup>8</sup>____ (train) with Martin, but today he <sup>9</sup>____ (watch) her because Rachel <sup>10</sup>____ (windsurf) with Bruce. He is a teacher and he sometimes <sup>11</sup>____ (help) her. She <sup>12</sup>____ (want) to enter the World Championships in America. 'A gold medal in the World Championships is my dream!'