You ought to eat more vegetables!

We use "ought to" to give advice or to express a moral duty. We combine "ought to" with the base form of the verb.

You ought to take some medicine for that cough.
The government ought to provide better health care.

Task One – Match the sentence halves. Write the letter.

1. You ought to see ___	A glasses when you read.
2. Children ought to play ___	B a doctor.
3. I think everyone ought to try ___	C outside more often.
4. You ought to wear your ___	D healthy food.
5. School cafeterias ought to offer ___	E yoga sometime.

Task Two. – Finish the sentences with "ought to". Look at the example.

Remember your periods!

drink more water – You ought to drink more water.

1. eat breakfast every day - You _____
2. get 8 hours of sleep - Teenagers _____
3. Do lots of exercise - Everyone _____
4. wash your hands often - You _____
5. eat less fat – Dad _____

Task Three – Jim has a cold. Write 5 pieces of advice with ought to using this word bank. drink liquids/have soup/take aspirin/stay in bed/keep warm

1. He ought to drink liquids.
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

Remember your periods!

LIVEWORKSHEETS