

♪ You ought to be in pictures! ♪

Listen and click on the correct word. Notice the use of modals.

As I look at you a thought goes by / through my mind.
What a marvelous find you'd / you'll be upon the screen.
Oh I'm quite happy dear with you right by my side/heart.
But I'll / I'd be satisfied to lend you to the whole world to be seen.
You ought to / should be in pictures. You're wonderful to see.
You mustn't / ought to be in pictures how beautiful you would be.
Your face would / will thrill the nation.
Your voice should / would be adored.
You'd be a great sensation with fame and wealth for your reward.
And if you should / ought to kiss the way that you kiss when we're alone.
You'd have every girl and man a fan worshipping at your throne.
You ought to / could shine as brightly as Jupiter and Mars
You wouldn't / ought to be in pictures my star of stars!
SAXOPHONE SOLO
You surely can / could sing like Bing in a way that is nonchalant.
You got more than Barrymore and what more could / will anyone want?
You ought to / might not shine as brightly as Jupiter and Mars
You may be / ought to be in pictures my star of stars!

listen

Bing

Barrymore

