

Medical Vocabulary Worksheet

Part A: Draw a line matching the vocabulary word to the correct picture.

Consent form

X-ray

Overnight bag

Blood test

Admitting department

Ultrasound

Part B: Fill in the blanks with the correct word.

1. When I first arrive at the hospital, I will be sent to what department to fill out forms and answer questions?
Emergency Admitting Surgery
2. If I am at the hospital to have a baby, what department will I be sent to? X-Ray Blood Test Maternity
3. If my doctor found a lump on my arm and she wants to know if it is cancer, she will send me to get a: X-Ray Biopsy EKG
4. If I am having surgery, and I need to get some pain medicine during the surgery, the nurse will give me an: EKG IV MRI
5. If I need to be asleep during my surgery, what type of anesthetic will I get? Local General Deep
6. If my doctor wants to check the iron in my blood before I go in for surgery, what test will he send me to get?
Blood test X-Ray MRI
7. If I fell off a ladder and my arm hurts very much. When I go to the clinic, the doctor says I need an: X-Ray EKG Biopsy
8. I am 4 months pregnant. The doctor wants to see how my baby is doing, she sends me for an: MRI Ultrasound X-Ray
9. My father has been having very bad headaches for many months. His doctor is sending him to get a: MRI EKG X-Ray
10. I am going to the hospital for surgery tomorrow. The doctor says I should bring an overnight bag. Check 4 things I should bring along: food pajamas tooth brush clothes book jewelry laptop