ASTRONOMY Ursa Minor, or the Little Dipper, is a constellation made up of seven stars in the northern sky including the star Polaris.

a. What geometric figures are modeled by the stars?

b. Are Star 1, Star 2, and Star 3 collinear on the constellation map?

c. Are Polaris, Star 2, and Star 6 coplanar on the map?

HLIVEWORKSHEETS