

Practice

A. Choose the correct adjective.

1. While looking at the sky, we saw exploding/exploded fireworks.
2. After he said 'goodbye', she had a breaking/broken heart.
3. The shocking/shocked truth is that nobody knew who had the bomb.
4. The surprising/surprised Prime Minister didn't know what to say to the reporters.
5. The freezing/frozen weather conditions are forcing many people to stay inside.
6. His offer - three weeks in the Caribbean with nothing to pay! - is tempting/tempted and I am tempting/tempted to accept it.

B. Write the adjective you need to complete these sentences.

1. Grammar rules frustrate me. They're not logical. They are so _____.
2. They frustrate me but they don't bore me. I am never _____ when I study grammar.
3. Normally a language class stimulates me. Of course, it depends on the teacher.
With some teachers I don't feel _____.
4. Their classes bore me. And I'm not the only one. Many students find these classes very _____.
5. If teachers want to interest the students, they must use _____ material.
6. How can teachers interest students? One way is to have _____ discussions.
7. Certain subjects interest almost everybody. For example, most students are _____ in the subject of crime and morality.
8. It's important to speak in a language class, but it frightens many students. They are too _____ to speak in front of other people.
9. And me? Well, certain things frighten me, but not that. I am never _____ when I speak in class.
10. Exams, however, really frighten me. Exams are the only _____ thing in a language course.

C. Choose the correct adjective from the pair to complete the sentences.

1. What are we going to do tonight? I'm so (bored/boring) just sitting here watching TV.
Let's go out and do something (exciting/excited).
2. Did you watch that (interesting/interested) documentary on TV last night?
3. If you don't mind me saying, I think his (baffled/baffling) attitude is due to the fact that he isn't (interested/interesting) enough in his studies.
4. The (astonished/astonishing) fact that almost 20% of Americans are obese is, partly, due to the fact that they eat too much junk food.
5. His abilities were so (amazed/amazing) that people travelled from far away to hear him play.
6. (excited/exciting) particles in the nucleus centre caused a chemical transformation.